

NEW GOVERNMENT OF PORTUGAL HAS ISSUED BULLETIN

Purpose of the Administration of the Provisional Government Assures Per- fect Freedom of the Press.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Associated Press received today direct from Lisbon a dispatch from Senor Bernardo Machado, minister of foreign affairs of the new provisional government of Portugal, which was sent at the request of President Barga, setting forth the purposes of the administration and saying that the provisional government will endeavor to put into effect the policy of the republican party. The financial budget will be equalized in the general interest of the country and will be made up with honesty. The dispatch assured the freedom of the press, the abolishment of the Star chamber methods, and promised that public instruction would be completed and secularized religious congregations suppressed. A broad system of instruction under government control is planned. The army and navy are to be reorganized. It is the government's wish to serve the best interests of the country.

ODDIE AND NIXON RECEIVE OVATION AT GOLDFIELD

ARE GREETED WITH ROUND AFTER ROUND OF APPLAUSE AT BIG RALLY

The people of Goldfield extended a hearty welcome to Senator George S. Nixon, E. E. Roberts, T. L. Oddie, W. W. Booth, J. W. Legate and Con Ahern at the big republican rally held in that city last night. The Hippodrome theatre, where the gathering was held, was packed to the doors, and round after round of applause greeted the different candidates as they rose to speak or at different passages of their addresses.

One of the features of the meeting that made quite a hit was the glee club formed by L. F. Adamson, for this special occasion and others that may occur during the campaign. The members were Messrs. Ish, Wills, Jenkinson, Tobish, Downer, Merriman, Maroney, Ducey, Turner, Dunham and Jones, with Miss Murphy, accompanist. Each of the candidates upon being introduced was greeted to a verse or two to jolly them up and put them and the crowd in thoroughly good humor.

The glee club's greeting to Candidate Oddie was as follows:

O-D-D-I-E
Has anybody here seen Oddie?
Oddie with the shins dome?
Oh his hair was red and his eyes
are pink,
And he's a democrat—I DON'T THINK!

Has anybody here seen Oddie?
We'll put him in the governor's home.

Senator Nixon was given a similar reception:

Has anybody here seen Nixon?
N-I-X-O-N
Has anybody here seen Nixon?
He's got Pittman's goat.
His head is bald and his eyes are blue,
He's a republican through and through.
Has anybody here seen Nixon?
Give him a rousing vote.

NEGRO MEETS DEATH AT HANDS OF ANGRY MOB

By Associated Press.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 7.—Sitting bolt upright in his back, dead from a bullet wound in the heart, John Dell, a negro hackman, was discovered this morning. His death at the hands of a mob is the only tangible evidence today of the fury of the white men who last night attempted to storm the jail and lynch John Adams, a negro.

HUNTING FOR DYNAMITE HIDDEN IN THE TULE

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—A launch supposed to have been the one used by the Los Angeles dynamiters has been traced to Martinez, where it is believed the explosive was unloaded and taken south by train. The detectives think a careful search of the tules near Martinez will result in finding some of the dynamite.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The protected cruiser Des Moines has been ordered from Gibraltar to Lisbon to represent the United States.

BLAIR VOTER GIVES HIS OPINION OF CANDIDATES

(Special to the Bonanza)

BLAIR, Nev., Oct. 5.—Senator Nixon, E. E. Roberts, W. W. Booth and Con Ahern paid a flying visit to Blair this evening and met with an enthusiastic reception from their old time friends and acquaintances.

It is pardonable under the circumstances to indulge in retrospection and furnish some of the latter day saints with the information that Senator Nixon and W. W. Booth are old residents of Esmeralda county.

Senator Nixon was a telegraph operator at Belleville in '83, and W. W. Booth was associated with the True Fissure at Candelaria. Just imagine what a mine of information these four men could furnish the Historical society of Nevada, from the palmy days of the Comstock to the time when Candelaria and Belleville from the Northern Belle mine added their wealth to the industrial resources of our country. The discovery of Tonopah, where Butler and Oddie solved the greatest economic problem of the age in Tonopah and gave the miner a just share

SIX CONVICTS MAKE THEIR ESCAPE FROM SING SING

Gain Their Freedom in a Sensational Manner---Beat Keeper Into Uncon- sciousness and Then Remove Bars.

By Associated Press.
OSSING, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Six convicts made a sensational escape from Sing Sing prison early today. After beating a keeper into unconsciousness and binding and gagging another, they removed a bar from a window and lowered themselves to the ground by means of a blanket cut into strips. One of them, a West India negro, returned to the prison after an hour's liberty and gave the alarm. The ringleader of the escaped convicts is William Green, who is serving a long term for highway robbery.

RAILROAD LOSES CASE ON APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

JUDGMENT OF LOWER COURT AFFIRMED IN HENNINGSEN CASE

The case of Henningsen vs. Tonopah & Goldfield Railroad company, involving about $24,000 damages for breach of contract growing out of an agreement by the railroad company to sell Henningsen all narrow gauge railroad ties on its line, has just been affirmed by the supreme court. The case was first tried in Tonopah before Judge O'Brien and a jury in December, 1906, and has been pending ever since on new trial and appeal proceedings. The jury verdict was for the plaintiff. Campbell, Metson & Brown and George S. Green were attorneys for the defendant company, and McIntosh & Cooke represented Mr. Henningsen.

ATTEMPT MADE ON THE LIFE OF CHINESE PRINCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 6.—An attempt to kill Prince Tsai Haun, an uncle of the Emperor of China, as he stepped from the Overland train at Oakland Mole half an hour before boarding the liner Chiyu for the return trip to China, was frustrated today by Harry Moffit, chief of the secret service, and Detective Sergeant George McMahon of the local police department. They seized and overpowered George Fong, a member of the Young China association, just as he was about to draw a revolver from his hip pocket and fire upon the royal visitor.

Fong was handcuffed by the detectives and quickly hurried from the crowd which had gathered at the station to welcome the prince.

The prisoner was taken across the bay in a ferryboat, placed in a taxicab and hurried to Moffit's office, where he made a full confession of his intention to assassinate Prince Haun.

DIVORCEE DEAD AND RENO DOCTOR TAKEN TO JAIL

RENO, Oct. 6.—Dr. F. H. Wichman was arrested late this evening following the partial hearing of evidence into the death of Mrs. Emma Ross, a woman from Texas, ostensibly here to obtain a divorce.

It is charged that Wichman performed an illegal operation, the woman dying from its effects after an effort was made by other physicians to save her life by means of extraordinary operations.

Wichman is held in $5,000 bail, which he was unable to obtain. The testimony before the coroner's jury revealed a revolting condition.

Chief of Police Burke and District Attorney Woodburn left this morning for San Francisco where they will bring back Mrs. J. A. Talbot, who is held by the police of the bay city. Mrs. Talbot, it is stated, was present when the operation was performed.

MRS. TURNER MINUS HER VALUABLE GEMS

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A diamond necklace valued at $25,000, the property of Mrs. Oscar A. Turner, wife of a Tonopah mining man, was stolen from its casket when she was abroad recently.

The theft may have taken place at the Grand Hotel, Paris; in the Hotel Bearnerge, Lucerne, Switzerland, or on board the steamer Deutschland, on which Mrs. Turner arrived here Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Turner sailed for Europe on July 27. In Lucerne she turned over to the hotel clerk the box containing the $25,000 necklace, besides other jewelry, which the clerk put in the safe.

Mrs. Turner left the box there until she went to Paris. Arriving in Paris, she turned over the box, still unopened, to the clerk of the Grang hotel. Again she left it in the safe until ready to sail. She took the package on board the Deutschland at Cherbourg, but did not open it and left it with Purser Hagenow, who placed it in his safe.

HEDRICK GIVES HIMSELF UP TO OFFICERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Harry Hedrick, manager of the Chicago office of B. H. Scheffels & Co., which was raided Thursday last, simultaneously with raids here and elsewhere, surrendered to the federal authorities here today. He was held in $1500 bonds for examination Oct. 17. At the time of the Chicago raid Hedrick was absent from the office. Upon learning that detectives were after him, he decided to come east and face the music.

Hedrick came from Goldfield, where he was for a time caller on the first stock exchange during the early days of the camp, and was also engaged in the brokerage business. When the Rawhide boom started he went to that camp and became one of the representatives and correspondents of the George Graham Rice syndicate that was promoting Rawhide Coalition. Later he went to Reno and was connected with Rice's office there. Upon the removal of their headquarters to New York, Hedrick went there and officiated as one of the editors of Rice's Mining Financial News. On leaving New York he was sent to Chicago as manager of the Chicago branch of the Scheffels company.

His wife, who was well known in the Bohemian life of Goldfield during their residence there, was shot in a broker's office in Chicago a few weeks ago by Charles Rigdon, a wealthy broker, who then committed suicide. The woman survived her wounds.

The Bonanza's ruffing and binding plant is still running. Bring in your orders. As the ship approached port Friday, Mrs. Turner says she went to the purser, surrendered her receipt and received her parcel. Twenty hours afterward, when she sat down to fill out her declaration and opened the box she could not find the necklace.
